

Message from Her Majesty Queen Farah Pahlavi “Global Day of Action”

February 16, 2026

My dear compatriots,

The historical and international demonstrations of February 14, 2026, the “Global Day of Action,” called by Crown Prince Reza Pahlavi, and made possible through your extraordinary solidarity and strength, has filled my heart with pride.

The flags you raised and the slogans chanted displayed a steadfast determination bound with your deep love for our motherland. More than a million Iranians stood side by side from Melbourne to Munich, from London to Toronto and from Washington to Los Angeles to be the voice of our martyred, oppressed and tortured compatriots inside Iran. Our sacred homeland felt the magnificence and greatness of our national spirit.

Your will and patriotism has demonstrated the unity of the Iranian nation, one that surpasses generations, continents, and oceans. It is my conviction that in the end, light will prevail over darkness and that Iran, like the Phoenix, will soon rise from her ashes and join the family of free nations.

With pride, gratitude and motherly love,

Farah Pahlavi
